

Commodity Credit Corporation, USDA

§ 1402.3

(d) Payment limit. (1) No person, as defined in § 719.2(r) of this title, shall receive a payment in excess of $1,000, except that any wholly-owned or wholly controlled entity, such as a corporation, shall be considered to be the same person as the person which owns or controls such entity. Any person who adopts or participates in adopting a scheme or device which is designed to evade this limitation or which has the effect of evading this limitation shall be ineligible to receive a payment under this section. Such acts include, but are not limited to:

(i) Concealing information which affects the application of this section;

(ii) Submitting false or erroneous information;

(iii) Creating fictitious entities for the purpose of evading the application of this section.

(2) No payment shall be paid to a person which is in excess of the amount which the person paid for the certificate.

(e) Application. In order to receive a payment under this section, a person must:

(1) Submit certificates with an expiration date of May 31, 1989, or later with a completed Form CCC-8 to CCC postmarked by May 28, 1991;

(2) Submit no earlier than January 2, 1991 all certificates and Forms CCC-8 to CCC by mail at the following address: CCC Expired Certificate Exchange, Attn: Claims and Collections Division, P.O. Box 419205, Kansas City, Missouri, 64141-6205;

(3) Submit evidence to CCC which establishes to the satisfaction of CCC:

(i) The date the subsequent holder purchased the certificates;

(ii) The price paid by the subsequent holder for the certificates; and

(iii) If requested by CCC, the name and address of the person from whom the subsequent holder purchased the certificates.

§ 1402.1 General.

To facilitate trade in private trade channels, the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) will disseminate general sales offering information in the CCC Sales List which is published in press release form. The CCC Sales List will be revised and republished as necessary. CCC reserves the right to make any amendments deleting or adding to the provisions of the CCC Sales List or changing prices or methods of sale, including but not limited to, changes in the minimum prices and carrying charges. These lists are issued for the purpose of public information and do not constitute an offer to sell by CCC or an invitation for offers to purchase from CCC. The CCC Sales List will set forth either the prices or the pricing basis at which commodity holdings of CCC are available for sale for unrestricted or restricted use, and for export. Information concerning barter and credit will also be included. To be placed on the mailing list for the CCC Sales List press release, requests should be made to the Director, Warehouse and Inventory Division, Stop 0553, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, DC 20250-9860.

§ 1402.2 Submission of offers, terms, and conditions.

CCC will entertain offers from prospective buyers for the purchase of any commodities on the CCC Sales List. Offers accepted by CCC will be subject to terms and conditions prescribed by CCC. These terms include, among others, payment by cash or irrevocable letter of credit before delivery of the commodity, removal of the commodity from CCC storage within a reasonable period of time, and, in sales for export, proof of exportation.

§ 1402.3 Information.

The terms and conditions of sale with respect to any commodity appearing on § 1403.2 Administration.

The regulations in this part will be administered under the general supervision and direction of the Executive Vice President, CCC and the Administrator, Farm Service Agency (FSA).

§ 1403.3 Definitions.

The following definitions shall be applicable to this part:

Administrative charges means the additional costs of processing delinquent debts against the debtor, to the extent such costs are attributable to the delinquency. Such costs include, but are not limited to, costs incurred in obtaining a credit report, costs of employing commercial firms to locate debtor, costs of employing contractors for collection services, costs of selling collateral or property to satisfy the debt.

Administrative offset means deducting money payable or held by the United States Government, or any agency thereof, to satisfy in whole or in part a debt owed the Government, or any agency thereof.

FSA means the Farm Service Agency of the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA).

Carrier means a person or other entity, including but not limited to railroads, motor carriers, ocean carriers or piggyback enterprises, which provide transportation or other transportation-related services for compensation.

Certified financial statement means an account of the assets, liabilities, income and expenses of a debtor, executed in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and attested to as accurate by the preparer, under penalty of perjury.

CCC means the Commodity Credit Corporation.

Claim means an amount of money or property which has been determined by CCC, after a notice of delinquency and a demand for the payment of the debt has been made by CCC, to be owed to CCC by any person other than a Federal agency.

Credit reporting agency means:
